

RETURN POLICY

Please review our Return Policy carefully before making a purchase:

- No Returns Accepted: Due to the specific nature of thermostat products and to ensure their integrity and functionality, we do not accept returns once the item has been shipped and received by the buyer.
- No Refunds: All sales are final. We do not offer refunds on thermostat purchases. Please make sure to verify compatibility and specifications before completing your purchase.
- Shipping Damage Disclaimer: While we take utmost care in packaging and shipping your thermostat, we are not responsible for any damage that may occur during transit. We recommend buyers to inspect the package upon receipt and contact the shipping carrier for any claims related to damaged shipments.
- Product Specifics: Each thermostat listing includes detailed specifications and compatibility information. It is the buyer's responsibility to ensure the product meets their requirements before purchasing.

We strive to provide accurate product descriptions and excellent customer service. If you have any questions about our products or policies, please feel free to contact us before making a purchase. We are here to assist you.
